

Call for Seminars and Workshops

Deadline February 8, 2019 at 5pm PST

CLOSING THE DEGREE GAP

May 20-21, 2019
San Francisco Bay Area

DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel - Berkeley Marina

$499 Early Bird Registration

CAP is a program of Making Waves Foundation

The CAP College Success Institute convenes a national network of professionals to discuss best practices and share effective strategies that help increase the college graduation rate of low-income and first-generation students from four-year colleges and universities. Nationally, only 11% of low-income students get four-year college degrees by age 24 versus 58% of upper-income students¹. Let's close this degree gap.

Proposal Submission and Due Date

The deadline is Friday, February 8, 2019 at 5:00pm PST for submitting a proposal to the CAP College Success Institute Call for Seminars and Workshops. Proposals must be submitted using the online application form found here. Come share your expertise.

Any questions should be emailed to csi@making-waves.org, with "CSI Call for Seminars/Workshops - Question" in the subject line.

Request for Seminar and Workshop Proposals

We invite you to submit a seminar or workshop proposal for the inaugural CAP College Success Institute. We are accepting workshop proposals for the following tracks:

1. Leveraging technology

How to effectively use technology tools including CRM databases, online student support platforms, texting, nudges, reminders, online communities, etc.

2. Executive forum

A discussion of best practices for running a college success organization and improving outcomes

3. From financial aid to financial literacy

How financial mastery can increase the likelihood of college graduation and career success

4. A 1:1 approach to supporting students

How to effectively use various student support models including mentoring, counselling, advising, peer-to-peer support, volunteers, etc.

5. Success after college

How to best position students for their career or academic field of choice

6. Other topic

Applicants are invited to propose a topic of their own choosing

Presenter Discount

Those selected will receive a 25% discount to the conference registration fee for a maximum of two primary leaders/presenters. All seminar and workshop participants will be responsible for their own travel and hotel lodging. No speaker honorariums will be paid to seminar or workshop leaders, presenters, or panelists.
